IFIM LAW SCHOOL

Established in 2014 and based out of the Silicon Valley of India, today the IFIM Law School is recognized as the 2nd most outstanding Law School of Excellence by the Global Human Resource Development Centre (GHRDC) survey, 2021 and the 9th Best Private Law School in India by Outlook Magazine Ranking 2021. IFIM Law School is affiliated with the Karnataka State Law University (KSLU) and is approved by the Bar Council of India.

CENTRE FOR ADR

The Centre for Alternate Dispute Resolution [Centre for ADR] is a student-run body constituted in the year 2019, with a vision to promote ADR culture among the students. The Centre for ADR consists of student members who undertake various activities like Research and updation of ADR News on E-Platforms, Training for Competitions, Conducting Seminars and responsible for Weekly Classes to make everyone aware of the theoretical nuances of ADR. The members collectively work towards polishing the skills of students and guiding them to pursue their ADR interests.

The Centre for ADR aims to build an ADR culture throughout the IFIM and Society. We believe that any dispute can be solved in an amicable manner, and deals can be cracked through efficient negotiation; the only thing required is the knowledge of art and awareness of mechanisms. With the right training members of the society can be equipped with skills of ADR and the burden of courts can be reduced case by case.

CENTRE FOR SPORTS LAW ECONOMICS AND POLICY

The Centre for Sports Law, Economics and Policy (SLEP) aims to collaborate at an international and national level for the promotion of Sports Law which continues to be a niche field in legal academics and practice. The launch of the Centre marked the beginning of an important milestone in the road map towards establishing a critical discourse on sports law in India and around the world. The idea is to engage in the brainstorming of innovative ideas and techniques to bring to the forefront the tremendous legal and academic potential of the Sports Law field. The Centre focuses on filling in the gaps and answering various key questions in sports law, which is in the midst of an exciting, yet challenging, transformative process. The factual uniqueness of issues pertaining to sports and their interrelationship with law require unique analysis and the SLEP is revolutionizing the field of sports law in India.

GLIMPSES OF CONCORDAT 2019

CONCORDAT 2019 was the first national-level competition organized by the Centre for ADR, IFIM Law School as its flagship event. It was a hybrid competition in Negotiation and Mediation. It provided an avenue for the students to experience two different forms of dispute resolution together. The objective of the competition was to sharpen students' legal, negotiation, and intellectual skills. 16 teams comprising 48 participants from all over India took part in the competition. It was judged by a diverse panel of judges consisting of International Arbitrator, General Counsel of Companies, Mediator, Advocates, Judges, Academician and Associate from various Law Firms.

CONCORDAT 2.0

IT IS BACK!

FIM Law School is organising an Alternate Dispute Resolution Fest (ADR Fest) along with the Centre for Sports Laws, Economics and Policy, "CONCORDAT 2.0", scheduled from 15th July 2022 – to 17th July 2022.

CONCORDAT 2.0 aims to go a step ahead of CONCORDAT 2019 and aims to provide a holistic experience of all the forms of ADR to the participants with a fusion of Client Counselling and Negotiation, and Mediation and Arbitration as two formats C-Neg and Med-Arb. The event is spread over three days, wherein participants will not only compete but will be allowed to unwind themselves every evening and enjoy a cultural feast.

Concordat 2.0 is more than just a regular competition. It is an ADR Fest. A competition brings with it anxiety and apprehension. Concordat 2.0 shall help the students remain calm, composed, and refreshed with a 2-day Carnival alongside the Competition. The lively music, the lip-smacking food, the energetic dance performances, and the engaging games shall assure the festiveness, vigour and high spirit over the three days of the ADR Fest.
