PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

It gives me immense pleasure to bring the National Level Law Fest 'LEGIS CENTRUM' organised by K. C. Law College. The College was established under the aegis of the H.S.N.C. Board in the year 1955. The Law Fest is a dynamic and exciting platform for the Law Educationists, Academicians, Students of Law and Professionals to come together and share their ideas and knowledge of law.

I hope that this Fest would be productive to all participants, since it will give opportunities for students to develop their level of confidence to work in any kind of environment by participating in the various events of Law Fest i.e. National Client Counselling Competition, Letter to the Chief Justice Competition and National Level Moot Court Competition.

LETTER TO THE CHIEF JUSTICE COMPETITION

Date: 3rd March, 2023

“Letter to the Chief Justice” Competition is an event which is inspired by cases where concerned members of civil society in India wrote to the Chief Justices of various High Courts or the Supreme Court, on Inland Letters or postcards, to draw attention to pressing issues. These letters were later converted into writ Petitions/PIL. One such case is that of

D. K. Basu and Others v/s State of West Bengal & Others, wherein D. K. Basu attached a newspaper article to an inland letter and sent it to the Chief Justice of Calcutta High Court, to bring light to the issue of custodial deaths. On similar lines, we have conceived this event, which entails writing a letter to the Chief Justice of India on an inland letter.

General Rules:

- 1) Each team will comprise 2 participants.
- 2) The topic for the letter will be disclosed 15 minutes before the start of the competition, at the venue.
- 3) A blank Inland Letter or an A4 size paper will be provided to the participants at the time of the competition.
- 4) The letter should be hand written in English.
- 5) Participating teams should enter only their team code in the space provided for the address on Inland Letter provided to them.
- 6) The time allotted to write the letter will be 1 hour. Guidelines for writing the letter:
 - 1) Avoid excessive use of legal terms. Participants should keep in mind that this is a method of appeal used by the common man.
 - 2) Clean and legible handwriting is welcome.
 - 3) The letter should be formulated so as to emphasize the larger public interest of the given topic.
